

Tenth Annual Jewish Food and Cultural Festival
Sunday, March 3, 2019

Dear Friends and Fellow Artists,

Once again it is time to turn our attention to our upcoming Tenth Annual Jewish Food and Cultural Festival at Temple Israel. We continue to grow and learn with each amazingly successful festival. Don't forget you can again pre-order your sandwiches for pickup on Festival day, and frozen foods for pickup during the week before the festival.

I will send you information for on-line pre-ordering of food as soon as I get it!

We continue to make improvements to the parking areas and again hope for glorious weather, though it may be a little cooler this year. We hope you will be able to join us on Sunday, March 3, 2019, from 10:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

We have 26 outdoor vendor spaces with a possible 4 more if needed. The cost is again $65 for a 10' x 10' space and vendors will need to provide their own tents and tables. Temple Israel did purchase a couple of 10' x 10' shelters that you can rent for $37.50 for the day if you need one. And once again I'm looking for one or two additional vendors in the children's area, if you have any suggestions! (but no face painters, henna tattoos or balloon art).

We have a pdf of the layout so be sure to look it over and indicate your 1st, 2nd and 3rd location choices on your application.

As in the past, I will send out an email by mid-February outlining the Festival-day instructions for loading in and out, etc.

In order to reserve your space, your payment AND application must be received at Temple Israel by February 25, 2019. Spaces are assigned on a first come-first serve basis. I also attempt to separate, as much as possible, vendors selling work of the same product, ie. jewelers, wood workers, photographers, ceramacists, etc. You can email me anytime with your questions or for additional information. No refunds will be made after February 25, 2019.

Thank you for joining us. I look forward to sharing this day with you!

Sincerely,

Judith Lyons,
Festival Vendor Chairperson
