

621 Gallery Store Call for Artists and Entrepreneurs

Calling local artists and entrepreneurs in Tallahassee and the surrounding area. 621 Gallery is expanding and revamping the 621 Gallery store. 621 Gallery, located in the historic Railroad Square Art Park for 38 years, has presented the best in contemporary art—exhibiting current and thought provoking works from across Florida, the United States, and internationally. Artists are invited to be a part one of the oldest established art galleries in Tallahassee.

Artists are invited to submit images for possible selection into the 621 Gallery Store. Twelve applicants will be chosen by a 621 Gallery jury process. Each applicant may submit their application, up to six (6) jpgs of their proposed work, and application fee (see below) to 621galleryinc@gmail.com.

Submission fee:

Non-members must include a one-time non-refundable jury fee of $25.00
Members are exempt from this fee. Please provide date of membership.

Consignment rates—all works will be sold as follows:

Non-member: 50%/50%
Members: 60% to the artist/40% to 621 Gallery

Additional information on how to become a 621 Gallery member is located here.

Inventory will be reviewed, and sales evaluated every three months to ensure the 621 Gallery shop continues to remain a unique location for those shopping for affordable artwork and products.

Highlighted Artists and Entrepreneurs

621 staff will select an artist every month to be highlighted in the Gallery Shop. Selected artists will be invited to bring in additional work and given premium display space for the full period of the assigned month, starting on the first Friday of that month. Highlighted artists and entrepreneurs will rotate on the first Friday of each month. Scheduling will be determined by the 621 Selection committee and in conversation with the selected artists and entrepreneurs.
