COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Using Theatre to Connect with Our Community and to Foster Social Change

Project

This new online Fall program was developed as a way for Middle and High School students to continue their theatre education, exercise their performance talents, and connect with their community through Southern Shakespeare Company's mission of inclusion, diversity and community engagement.

With a focus on theatre and social change, the Community Connection Project will teach students about the power of art to tell stories, create hope, and inspire change..

Offering:

- The opportunity to workshop and perform in a Southern Shakespeare Company PSA which will air on television
- Workshops and lectures led by diverse and skilled local professionals on social justice topics and theatre-related skills
- Workshopping Shakespearean scenes in the context of diversity in our community.
- Training in writing and collaborating for performance
- Volunteer and outreach opportunities

Bi-Weekly Meetings on Zoom Plus Additional Workshops and Lectures

Nine Week Program ❖ September 12 - November 12, 2020
