ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

The Arts Center of Moultrie is a creative and cultural resource that provides an engaging arts education for children and adults, acts as a steward of permanent collections, and maintains a landmark facility that enriches Colquitt County, Georgia and all of our neighboring communities.

Since our inception, it has been very important for us to share our programs and love for the arts with the community, with an ever-present goal of enriching the lives and minds of all. Activities at the Arts Center are as diverse as the people who live in Colquitt County. With the support and enthusiasm for the arts from the community, we have been able to provide classes year-round, and have specially designed programming to provide an enriched and extended education to our community and many of its special groups. Transformed from the old Moultrie High School in 1987, the Arts Center is housed in a National Register of Historic Places building, which is nearly 100 years old.
